

WHAT NOW?

Where does this lack of motivation come from?
Nothing inspires me
“I don’t feel like it”
Seems to be the only consistent phrase in my mind

The kids have grown up and moved out
And deep inside
A growing sense
That I have no-one to care for
Anymore

I sit on the couch
Staring into nothingness
And wonder if this is what it feels like to retire
The job I once did
Is now being fulfilled by another
