

NOTHING IS WASTED

Nothing goes unnoticed
nothing escapes me
Your life truly matters
Every single chapter
It can all be used
Let me clearly state it:
“Nothing in your life is wasted”

Every piece
Broken, incomplete or whole
Is made beautiful
As new seasons unfold

When circumstances crippled you
When you got sidetracked, distracted
When you felt nothing growing
No fruit showing

To me it was fertiliser
Rich compost that I will use to shape your future
To bring life and to nurture
